

UNIVERSITY OF
BIRMINGHAM

SAPERERE P4C

Philosophy in Schools Showcase

Thursday 27 June 2024, 10am-4.30pm

Vaughan Jeffreys Lecture Theatre, School of Education, University of Birmingham

Ever wondered what philosophy in schools is all about?
Join us for a day of inquiry, demonstration, performance and celebration.

The Chairness of a Chair

A Philosophy Song Cycle

devised and performed by Year 4 pupils at Kings Rise Academy

Honesty Is The Best Policy... Or Is It?

A Philosophical Enquiry

led by Grace Lockrobin
Co-Director of SAPERE

Overcoming Stereotypes An Interactive Workshop

led by Lisa Bortolotti
The Philosophy Garden

What Is Art? A Concept Game

led by Laura D'Olimpio
University of Birmingham

Plus

Philosophical Education for Everyone: about SAPERE, with Grace Lockrobin
Thinking and Acting in Schools: the work of Stan's Cafe, with James Yarker
Open Access Research in the Journal of Philosophy in Schools, with Michael Hand
Long Live the Kings: a photographic exhibition, with the pupils of Kings Rise Academy

This event is free of charge and includes lunch and refreshments, but registration is essential.
Register online at <https://www.birmingham.ac.uk/philosophy-in-schools-showcase>